

Bio for Sandi Givens

Conference MC & Keynote Presentation Engagement – for Promotional Use –

A Conference needs to stay on track, on time and maintain an optimum learning environment for all ... that's why we've engaged Sandi Givens as our MC! Energetic, light-hearted and down-to earth, Sandi has an authentic, engaging style that is guaranteed to inspire, expand and challenge your thinking and is ideally suited to our time together.

Sandi is a specialist in Shattering the Glass Ceilings that Limit Success. For more than 25 years, Sandi has catapulted the careers and business success of thousands of people, and provided them with skills that enable them to live their own personal leadership and the life they long for. She has a natural warmth with people and connects to their 'real world' with her artful use of stories, metaphors and masterful debriefing of learning activities.

"Sandi is without doubt one of the most skilled communicators and facilitators of change that I have ever encountered in my professional career. Many participants comment that their learning with Sandi has been a 'life changing experience'."

An award-winning International Speaker, Author, Women's Executive Coach and MC, Sandi will prove an invaluable addition to our Conference.

Sandi's compelling message is "Everyone's a leader ... it has nothing to do with your title at work. Your actions, your beliefs, your future ... it's your choice."

Sandi will also be contributing a Keynote session that will provide attendees with tangible Action Steps that can be applied immediately in your life, and maximise the value of your attendance.
