

Introduction for Sandi Givens

Inspiring ... Entertaining ... and amazingly Authentic ... this is how our next speaker is commonly described.

Born in the USA, Sandi moved with her family to Australia as a young child when her father got a job here. It was this experience that ignited the fire in her belly to teach people to be nice to themselves – and each other.

From high school cheerleader to a degree in Psychology & Sociology, from factory line worker to computer trainer, from Manager in international businesses to 23 years of self-employment, Sandi understands what it takes to live your dream.

Sandi's life motto is simple – “know when to tough it out, and know when to let it go.”

She has worked with literally tens of thousands of people at all organisational levels, with companies like McDonalds, Canon, Melbourne, Sydney, Monash and Deakin Universities, the State Revenue Office and Federal, State and Local government bodies – as well as countless business owners.

She is the acclaimed author of the book, Women on the Move, an International Award-winning Speaker, Facilitator and Coach, and is one of Australia's most popular Leadership and Team Re-Building specialists. She's also a passionate volunteer for the Cancer Council and serves on the Advisory Board of the Global Good Foundation.

Sandi's favourite role, though, is as the mother of one son – and wife to one man! Guaranteed to shake up your thinking, get ready to learn unique strategies - that you can use immediately – please give a huge welcome to ... Sandi Givens

“For Unbelievable Breakthroughs That Deliver Outstanding Results”

Outro for Sandi Givens

(Please feel free to start by saying what you like about the presentation.)

As is evidenced in her presentation today, Sandi is indeed passionate about helping people live the life they long for and is keen to assist you further, if you choose.

She has some very special offers on her products & services today – please see her product table before you leave if you'd like to take up this opportunity.

Sandi would also greatly value your comments and feedback about her presentation today. Could you please take a moment to fill in the final page of your handout, and hand it to Sandi or leave it on your seat before you leave.

"For Unbelievable Breakthroughs That Deliver Outstanding Results"